RAWSAU

Wilpena Pound Resort ★★★★★

Flinders Ranges National Park

Stay at Wilpena Pound Resort in the Flinders Ranges and discover some of the secrets of the rugged ancient outback mountains, where the first signs of 'life on earth' have been found.

The resort is in the Flinders Ranges National Park, an easy pleasant drive on sealed roads, 430 kilometres north of Adelaide, and is located on the banks of Wilpena Creek amid the stately red gums and native pines. You'll see some of Australia's unique native wildlife in their natural environment and here you'll experience some of the best four wheel driving in Australia.

For many visitors to Wilpena Pound Resort, a combination of organised touring and self drive adventuring proves to be the most rewarding. The resort's Visitor Information Centre provides planning help for all self guided walks on bush trails and self drive 4WD tracks. The resort offers organised guided walking tours, 4WD tours as well as 'must do' scenic flights.

The Wilpena Pound Resort offers guests and travellers warm, outback hospitality and a wide range of services and facilities to cater for all tastes and budgets.
